

Editor's Comment:

Overall, paper might be accepted according to the review comments and the feedbacks from the authors, however, from the point of improving the quality of our journal, several following points should be considered by the authors, as follows:

(1) All the figures the authors provided are from other references, thus the resolution of each figure should be improved.

(2) The size of formulas in the manuscript are in conformity, for example, Equation (3), (4), (7), (10), (11).
