Minor REVISION comments	The author is strongly advised to be consistent with the referencing style, particularly in the discussion. When referencing in the Vancouver system (as per Journal guidelines), Amenos et al. (2010) should instead be written as Amenos et al. [32]. It might be a little oversight from the author but please correct them.
Optional/General comments	It is a good research. The author is thorough and is probably experienced. I also did a little search and didn't find any similar work published from Ethiopia. Overall, a good job
