Table 5 data are wrong point 1, 2 so the total is wrong Table 6 data are wrong point 1, 3 nothing in 5, there is no total Therefore you must change the text and figure 2 (and may be the analysis ?) form : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - avoid following/above and give the number of figure/table in the text, introduce the reference of a table somewhere in the text (eg Table 3) - unify the references in part 2.1/3.1.2b they are not referenced and the way is not correct some are referenced but not used (12, 13, ...), some cannot be understood since the article is in English (eg 32, 33, ...) 	Have been revised. Total weight x rating has been recalculated. Have been revised. Total weight x rating has been recalculated. Have been revised and the analysis also had been revised according to the table and figures. All figures and tables were revised into the same page and proper position. Part 2.1 and 3.1.2b has been revised. References (32,33,34) are the same author, however his books are published in different editions.
