Compulsory REVISION comments	This paper tried to investigate the impact of an artistic analysis of the evolution of Palestinian poster art via the analysis of the artwork of the artist Marwan Al-Alan. It must have taken much effort to conduct the research but its contribution is not clear to readers. In specific, it should be improved in the following ways to be published. 1. Major comments (1) Contribution This research is based on a descriptive discussion of the artwork of the Palestinian Artist Marwan Al-Allan. An interview conducted with the artist in October 2017. Readers may wonder identifying an environment of artwork in relative artwork. That is, please discuss more about the contribution of this research and explain how the research findings can be used to give values to culture or country. (2) Relevance This paper needs to update its literature review of current empirical works o in other countries and cases in the second section for better understanding its relevance with regard to local artwork. (3) Theoretical and managerial implications Please extend the discussions in this paper and link them to the contribution. In this paper, the theoretical and managerial implications are linked to the findings. Instead of linking to the empirical results, it is recommended to emphasize what the previous studies could not identify but this paper did.
